

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Use of Content

Articles must be original content—in other words, created entirely by the contributor—not published in any other print or digital media (magazines, books, blog posts, e-mags, etc.) unless otherwise specifically stated by CW. It is the responsibility of the author to ensure that the author has all necessary rights to copy, publish, and distribute all content submitted by that author, that doing so would not result in copyright infringement, and all submitted material is original to that author. In other words, by submitting any content to CW—whether written, photographic, or otherwise—you warrant and represent that the content you are submitting is your own original content, that you have obtained all necessary licenses to use any content you have not created yourself, and that the content you submit does not and will not infringe on the rights of any third party.

All content will be subject to editorial changes. Also, by providing material for publication, you grant The Gospel Advocate Company, publisher of Christian Woman magazine, permission to use your submitted content—including your correspondence and

How to Submit

We accept fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. Content may be submitted by mail or email. If mailed, send to CW Editor, 1006 Elm Hill Pike, Nashville, TN 37210. If emailed, please submit your content as an attached Word document to cw@gospeladvocate.com. Please include your name, address, phone number, and a brief bio. While your content is under consideration, please keep us informed of any contact information changes so you can receive a complimentary copy of the issue containing your published work.

We only accept photographs taken by you that do not contain individual people or minor children (unless you are able to provide written releases by those individuals/their guardians, as applicable). If allowable photos or artwork accompany your submission, photos must be high-resolution versions of 300 dpi minimum, 8" x 11" and must either be original to the submitter or submitter must have all necessary rights to copy, publish, and distribute those photos. If the photos are too large for email submission, arrangements should be made with the editor to submit via large file-sharing sources such as Dropbox or by CD or thumb drive (these will not be returned).

Submitted materials may be held by CW for up to two years (or longer if specifically requested by the editor). You must provide accurate contact information with your submission. Submissions without contact information will be discarded. If your contact information changes while your materials are under consideration, it is your responsibility to provide updated information to us. This will ensure your receipt of one complimentary copy following the publishing of your content.

Due to the number of submissions received, CW does not and cannot guarantee that it will review, publish, or respond to all submissions.

biographical information (including name, image, and/or likeness) for all other purposes, including, but not limited to, promotional, marketing and advertisement, whether physical or electronic, and may be reproduced and repurposed in other works or media with proper citation and attribution given to the author.

Since CW publishes material that is exclusive and original in content, you may not submit or copy any work published by CW to any other magazine, website, blog, or media outlet for a minimum of one year after published in CW. Should you choose to withdraw your content from consideration, please do so by mail or email.

By submitting unsolicited content, you are granting the Gospel Advocate Company an irrevocable license to your correspondence as well as the submitted content, along with an unrestricted right to edit or modify the correspondence and/or content prior to publishing, and you waive all rights to approval prior to publishing.
